BRAGS

Work is doing it.

Discipline is doing it every day.

Diligence is doing it well every day.

Tag showing us how it's done !

Joe Nelson: Tag earned a MACH3 in June, 2010 at the PBOTC agility trials in Midland and a MACH4 in February, 2011 in Clovis. Including the double Q that she got to finish the MACH3, she qualified 44 out of 46 runs. This is a 95.7% qualifying rate. The average qualifying rate for AKC excellent B classes is about 30%. In addition she finished the Triple Q Excellent (TQX) title in Clovis. This title requires 10 triple Qs in the Excellent B classes and is by far the most difficult title I have ever earned with a dog. Tag got 79 double Qs in the time it took to get 10 triple Qs.

Janice and Ben Johnson: Wichita Falls trial JoJo finally finished Open Standard and Open Jumpers. So, now she is a big girl and will compete in Excellent. She had a beautiful day on Saturday and double Q'd with two blue ribbons. It was such a joy to see her run so well. The Jumpers course was especially smooth, and she just seemed to fly. JoJo did the victory dance twice with me, and she was smiling from ear to ear as everyone congratulated her and gave her praise. She's a wonderful dog. Ben said he doesn't deserve such a great girl. Page provided comic relief for the entire group, especially when she plopped down on the chute fabric, but on the second day, Steve Moon told me, "You had your moments." At least she jumped all jumps Saturday in JWW and finished with me at the timer. That was some accomplishment for her! (this brag had been deleted from a previous newsletter—sorry)

Lee Ann McNeil : Hoss finished his EXSP and open fast and got a leg in EXFP on his first try. He also has 4 MXJP legs All with first places

Carol Bishop: The best Terrier in the world, aka Jett qualified 5 out of 6 times with 2 Double Q's. This leaves 1 more double Q for us to go to nationals. Little miss Taz also Q 2 out of 3 times with 2 second places. We had a great weekend in Clovis no one ended up at the emergency room.

Terry Hetzel: In Clovis, Riley girl Q'd in JWW on Sat and DOUBLE Q'd on Sunday. Ri now has 4 double Qs and 331 points towards her MACH ! Trooper enjoyed the ride all weekend!

There are no club/board meeting minutes since the February club meeting was canceled due to bad weather.
